- Preparing for AP ENGLISH LANGUAGE: Close Reading Non-Fiction
Thursday, June 10 PWHS Room 176
 Close reading skills will be reviewed as students select their summer reading title and begin their summer writing assignment with the instructor's assistance. Since successful completion of the summer assignment is crucial to developing essential skills necessary for AP Language and Composition work, a portion of the session will function as a working meeting where students can organize and plan their summer work with guidance from their AP instructor.
 - Period 1 8:00 A.M. - 11:00 A.M.
 - Period 2 12:00 P.M. - 3:00 P.M.

- Preparing for AP ENGLISH LITERATURE: Reading and Annotation of Fiction
Thursday, June 10 PWHS Room 183
 Students will review the summer syllabus and assignment, be introduced to class expectations, ask questions about the course, build classroom community, and select summer reading titles. Since successful completion of the summer assignment is crucial to developing essential skills necessary for AP Literature and Composition work, a portion of the session will function as a working meeting where students can organize and begin their summer work with guidance from their AP instructor.
 - Period 1 8:00 A.M. - 11:00 A.M.
 - Period 2 12:00 P.M. - 3:00 P.M.

- Preparing for AP PSYCHOLOGY: Intro to Research
Monday, August 16 – Friday, August 20 PWHS Business Computer Lab 133
 The entire focus of the week is to complete the entire 1st Quarter Research Project, which will lessen the workload during the actual school year. Students enrolled in this session will compose an ethical research plan and psychological survey, learn about sampling procedures and data analysis as they conduct their research, and create a presentation for the class. All work will be scored and applied to the 1st semester grade.
 - Period 1 8:00 A.M. - 11:00 A.M.

- ART OF BUILDING AND PLAYING THE UKULELE  A $30 supplies cost DUE JUNE 7 to PWHS Main Office **
Monday, July 12 – Friday, July 23 PWHS Room 122
 You could be a rockstar! Without a doubt over the past few years the ukulele has established a strong presence in popular music with songs surfacing like Somewhere Over the Rainbow by Israel Kamakawiwo'ole, Oh What a Day by Ingrid Michaelson, and covers of I'm Yours by Jason Mraz. The class will cost $30 for all of the supplies needed for this 2-week summer school course to design and build your own ukulele. After building it, you will learn to play some basic ukulele licks... Then it's off to fame and stardom!
 - Period 1 8:00 A.M. - 10:15 A.M.

➤ BAND
